

Planning Acronyms

EIA means Environmental Impact Assessment.

EMPC Act means the Environmental Management and Pollution Control Act 1994.

EPA Board means the Environment Protection Authority Board.

EPN means an environmental protection notice issued under the EMPC Act.

HCH Act means the Historic Cultural Heritage Act 1995.

LUPAA means the Land Use Planning and Approvals Act 1993.

LPS means Local Provisions Schedule and informally, local planning scheme. LPSs are part of the Tasmanian Planning Scheme.

NEPM means a National Environment Protection Measure issued under the National Environment Protection Council Act 1994.

TASCAT means the Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

TPC means the Tasmanian Planning Commission.

TPP means Tasmanian Planning Policies.

TPS means Tasmanian Planning Scheme.

RecFIT means Renewables, Climate and Future Industries Tasmania, in the Department of State Growth.

RLUS means Regional Land Use Strategy.

RMPS means the Resource Management and Planning System.

SPPs means State Planning Provisions, which are part of the Tasmanian Planning Scheme.